ADVISER Mr. Hoffmeier

1960

THE WALK TO SCHOOL IS EASY, BUT...

It is our intention to give you a look at the twelve years between our first walk to school and the beginning of the long walk after school.

THE WALK AFTER SCHOOL PROVES MORE DIFFICULT.

With the aid of a

SPOTLIGHT

we bring you some high-lights of the 1959-1960 school year.

First, we find the Freshmen in all the glory(?) of being initiated.

Attendants Harriet Mast and Linda Cuvelier flank Queen Kay Theis.

The spotlight focuses on

Duke Ray Bye crowned Queen Kay Theis during the half time ceremonies, after which she addressed the crowd.

HOMECOMING

Hobo Day traditionally marks the start of Homecoming festivities.

On the afternoon before the game a pep rally and parade are held down town. The alumni speaker this year was James Stokes.

QUARTERS	1 2 3 4

Homecoming week is climaxed by the game which a large crowd attends. We beat our Homecoming foe,
Denver, by a score of 33 to 13.

Winter is the season for holidays Christmas was packed with work and fun for all.

WINTER

Ruth McCalley helped make posters advertising the Christmas program.

Winter also means Christmas trees.

Kay Theis and Jim Koepke helped decorate the large tree that graced our assembly.

The boys' chorus practiced energetically for the Christmas program

Popcorn for a basketball game is always good when popped by Sandra Newell and LaCrecia Huber

The faculty-school board party was enjoyed by all who attended

Many a dress has come from Home Economics classes

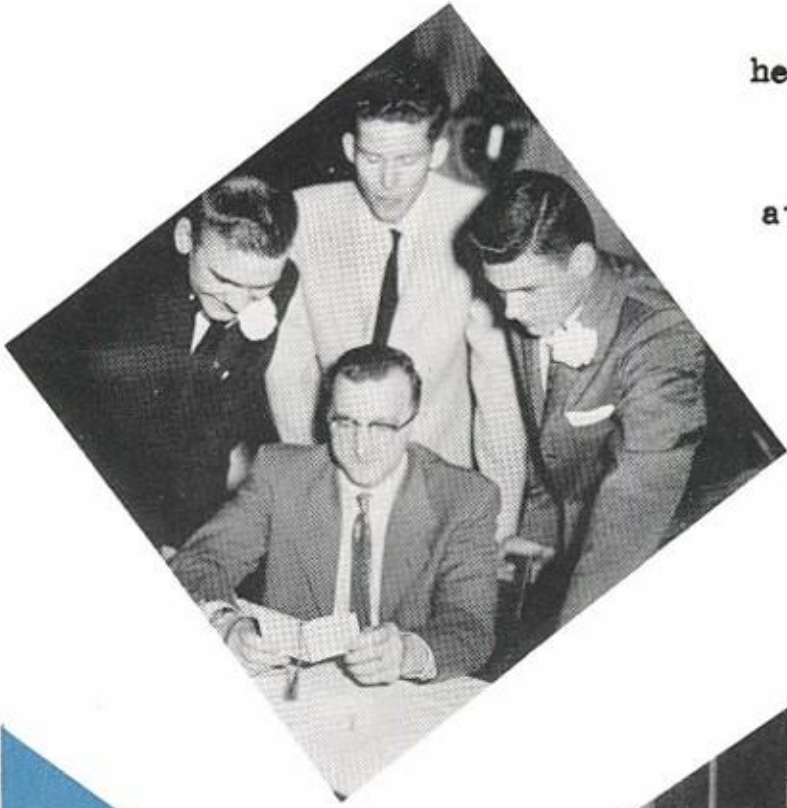

Pupils enjoyed looking at the literature exhibited at the PTA Book Fair

Happy faces reflect the pleasant evening which the juniors held in honor of the seniors

at Hotel Russell Lamson.

PROM

Watch it there, Bev.

Boy! This ladder wobbles.

How about this!

Which way did he go?

"Nuff said"

We've had it!

This is the place.

THE CLASS OF 1960

This year's graduating class consisted of thirty-one members. Of these, seventeen started their schooling at Janesville. By the time they started high school, seven more had come to Janesville. In the last four years they have had seven new students.

May 19th, the day of commencement, marked the end of four years of hard work and good times together. For everyone, it was the beginning of a new task, the task of facing the world. Almost one-third of the Class of '60 is looking forward to a college career.

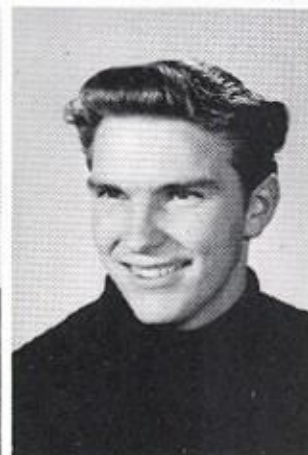

Of course, they like to feel that they have really added something to JHS. Certainly the fine extra-curricular activity record has been due, in part, to the participation of the majority of the class.

The Class of '60 feels that they have shown that when a class works hard together, they can accomplish much. This is evidenced by the beautiful prom they put on, the chili suppers, and the class plays they presented.

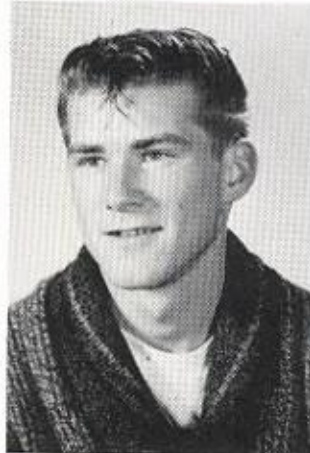

They realize their class hasn't been perfect, but they feel they have left a record for future classes to aim for.

Everyone got a chance to sing
at the Christmas program

The book fair, sponsored by the P. T. A., was enjoyed by everyone.

GRADE ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Baxter's first grade room became an Indian reservation.

The Junior Band anxiously awaits curtain time.

Mrs. Halverson's snowflakes do a dance.
